The Banquet

The menu is the most important part of the wedding reception and we are proud to offer an experienced team to assist you with your plans for this event. Our team of managers will be happy to discuss your menu choice and other details of your day with you. And we will remain with you throughout the day, ensuring you and your guests receive our special attention. Enclosed is our banqueting menu brochure with a large selection of dishes for you to choose from. Children's meals and special dietary requirements are catered for.

Some helpful advice

Wine Notes

Wine is supplied by the bottle with each bottle serving approximately 5 glasses. It is charged as it is used/ordered. We offer a selection of good quality and good value house wines which are always available. Wine may be ordered from the full house list once sufficient notice is given to the hotel. A mineral is automatically offered to any guest who declines wine at the meal and will be billed to the main account.

Toast Notes

There are traditionally four different types of bridal toast.

- 1. Open Toast: This is a drink of the guests choice. We do not serve any double measures, cocktails or champagnes unless requested to do so by the bride and groom.
- 2. Sparkling Wine Toast: This is charged by the bottle. There are approximately 6 glasses per bottle
- 3. Wine Top up: This is poured just before the speeches begin. This is charged on a consumption basis per bottle opened.
- 4. Champagne: Choose from our selection of fine champagne both vintage and non-vintage. This is charged by the bottle. There are approximately 6 glasses of champagne per bottle.

Speeches

Our manager will be on hand to assist the bestman with his arrangements and to coach him through the speeches. These normally occur after the teas and coffees have been served.

Information on Music

The choice of music for your banquet can be an important decision. The hotel does not have a resident band but to act as a guideline, we provide below a list of the bands that have played in the hotel on a regular basis.

The list does not constitute a recommendation and we would suggest that you first see the band before making a booking. Bands are contracted outside any arrangements made with the hotel and must be paid directly.
